International Workshop, March 14-15, 2009

Historical Analysis of Market Order and Institutions in China: Market Order in China Reconsidered

Venue: East Research Building, 6th Floor, G-SEC Lab, Keio University
(Hosted by Takahashi Industrial and Economic Research Foundation and the Global COE Program on Raising Market Quality and Integrated Design of 'Market Infrastructure', Keio University)

Saturday, March 14

Session 1  Chaired by Pui-tak Lee (9:00~12:00)
①Kazuko Furuta (Keio University)
Conference Proposal: Market Order in China Reconsidered
②Atsushi Aoki (Osaka University)
Institutionalism in Adjudications on Land Claims in Sung China
③Man-houng Lin (Academia Historica)
China’s Native Opium Market, 1870-1906

Session 2  Chaired by Kazuko Furuta (13:30~14:40)
④Makoto Yano (Kyoto University)
Market Quality

Session 3  Chaired by Eiichi Motono (15:00~17:15)
⑤Mio Kishimoto (Ochanomizu University)
Chinese Market Structure in the Late-Ming-Early-Qing Period
⑥Kazuko Furuta (Keio University)
Information Asymmetry and Market Order in China
⑦Kai Yiu Chan (Tunghai University)
Market Agency and Industrial Enterprises in Modern Shanghai, 1900-1936

Sunday, March 15

Session 4  Chaired by Man-houng Lin (9:30~12:30)
⑧Eiichi Motono (Waseda University, Oxford University)
The Market System in Late Qing and Early Republican Period, 1870-1919
⑨Pui-tak Lee (Hong Kong University)
Institutional Networks versus Non-Institutional Networks
⑩Tsuyu Chen (Academia Sinica)
Silk Filature Industry in Wuxi Area during the Wartime, 1938-1943
⑪Yuichi Kanemaru (Ritsumeikan University)
The Economic Activities of Zhu Lanfang

Session 5  Chaired by Mio Kishimoto (14:30~17:05)
⑫General Discussion including general comments
by Linda Grove (Sophia University), Madeleine Zelin (Columbia University)